

AROUND THE TOWN.

Incidents and Accidents in and About Yale

Briefly Itemized for Expositor Readers.

Those high resolutions, so fierce and so fiery, now flicker and pale to the hue of a ghost; of that '96 diary is becoming a burden, a bore and a rout.

Renew for 1896. Colds have been quite prevalent in the village during the past week.

Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent, will fall on February 19th this year. Easter Sunday will be on April 5th.

Edward Newell has rented his farm to William Morsehead, of St. Mary's Ont., and has moved to Yale now occupying the McArthur house.

All kinds of Cloyer and Timothy seed for sale by James Hisey in the Hi Allen building, one door south of Ferguson & Co's hardware store, Yale. 39

Ed. Kyes and wife, of Freeland, are entertaining a little girl stranger that arrived at their home on the 16th inst. Ed at one time worked in the station here.

Dr. Yuill, of Crosswell, will make regular visits to Yale Saturday of each week, and will remain from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. Calls left at the drug stores will be attended to. 37tf

Peerless Hiye, 123, LOTM, installed their new officers last Friday evening. After the ceremonies were through with all enjoyed an elegant lunch prepared for the occasion.

A tramp recently made a hearty meal of some dried apples which he stole from a farmer, and nearly died in consequence. Several dinners have ruined many a man's digestion.

Regular meeting of OES in their hall in the McKenna block next Wednesday evening at usual hour. Members are requested to be present as matters of importance will be brought out.

Two lots for sale at a bargain. Lots number 2 and 20 of Block 4, Reed & McNutt's first addition to the village of Yale. For further particulars and terms inquire of J. A. Menzies, Expositor office, Yale. 19tf

The streets of our village during the past week or more have had an unusual business appearance. Our merchants are giving rare bargains and the people of the surrounding country are taking advantage of the situation.

William Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bell, of this village, died at his home two and one-half miles east of Peck Sunday morning of inflammation of the lungs and pleurisy. The relatives have the sympathy of the community.

Dr. Warner Cornell, of the firm of Drs. Warner & E. A. Cornell, eye, ear, nose and throat specialists of 229 Huron Ave., Port Huron, will be at the Rapley House on the last Friday of each month. His next visit will be Friday, January 31st.

"We are convinced," wrote the editor in his valedictory, "that much of our misfortune is due to the name we gave our paper. We might have known when we called it the 'Record' that every true American would feel it his duty to beat it."

A pleasant little party was given at N. B. Herbert's last Friday evening for Miss Emma Spring. Over fifty were present and enjoyed thoroughly an interesting program of amusements and delectable lunch. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert are the best of entertainers.

Pine Root Cough Syrup has cured hundreds after given up to die. Insist on taking that and take nothing else. Only one size, 50 cts. Sold by wholesale and retail druggists everywhere, or will deliver free two bottles for $1. T. F. Holden, Prop., Imlay City, Mich.

Miss Black, teacher in district No. 5, Brockway, tried to chastise Elmer McKenna, a 12-year-old boy, who sprang at her with great ferocity, fastening his teeth in her hand. She had to use much force to free herself. The wound, though not dangerous, is very painful.

To show us that the different varieties are not all exhausted as yet, the weather put on a new phase, the first of the week and fairly smiled all over with good humor and pleasantness. 'Twas like balmy spring, but the young folks say the sleighing and skating are both spoiled.

O. F. Burgess received a telegram Wednesday from friends at Reading, Mich., stating that his mother was very low and he started for there Thursday morning. A. L. Gark, a practical jeweler of over twenty years experience will look after Mr. Burgess' business during his absence, and any work entrusted to him will be warranted.

Brother Willis, the well-known evangelist from Detroit, found Dearborn sinners so refractory that he felt something desperate must be done. So he borrowed a coffin, preached on death, produced the mournful box just at the critical point. Some of the less hardened sinners weakened, but it is said the rest will never reform till Brother Willis produces some of the bona fide hell fire.

The Marlette Leader says their side-walks have been given up to the storm king and the village authorities will trust in Providence until another thaw takes place. The authorities of Yale village took matters into their own hands and on Friday last had a large number of men at work on the slippery and almost impassable walks, who with shovels, axes and other implements, soon had the walks thoroughly cleaned, greatly to the delight of the weary pedestrians.

On Monday last our depot presented quite a metropolitan appearance there being four buses present to look after the welfare of the traveling public. After the departure of the trains, the traveling public not being numerous enough, the boys managed to fill the vehicles and were drawn down town and dumped at their respective hostelrys. The boys say, "they struck it rich." Rich says, "he did it up brown." Brown says, "he was out without a bell." Bell says, "don't believe everything you read." Reid has nothing to say.

The man is travelling in the wrong direction who thinks money can make him happy.

A large number have renewed their subscriptions to The Expositor since our last issue. Have you?

For a substantial heavy work harness, or a light double or single driving harness, Wallace's live harness-maker can suit you.

I have several 80-acre pieces of land and improved farms in Sanilac county that I would trade for houses and lots in Yale. 37- B. R. NOBLE.

D. B. Menerey, editor of the Coleman Independent, is mixed up in five different cases to be tried at the present term of Midland county circuit court.

Mr. DeGolia, of Detroit, agent for the Standard Oil Co., and Chas. Lauer, of Port Huron, gauger for same company were in Yale last Saturday doing missionary work.

The Yale Orchestra is to be complimented on the possession of their new bass viol and cornet, the result of their last concert. They are beauties and came last Saturday.

We send the Expositor this week to Honor, Benzie Co., to Harry McKenna, one of Yale's boys who is now furnishing pills and prescriptions to the people of that locality. He is also finance keeper in the Maccabees.

The Whist Club enjoyed a social time at Harvey Tappan's on Monday evening and were nicely entertained by the Misses Kate and Hattie Hayes and Jennie Palmer. The next meeting will be held at R. H. Menerey's.

Lost.—Somewhere in the village of Yale or on the road to my place in Fremont, on Saturday, January 11th, 1896, two real estate abstracts. Finder will leave same at bank of B. R. Noble, Yale, and receive reward. J. E. Swan.

Steve Curvin has lately grown in height about five inches and now weighs about ten pounds more than he did one month ago. Upon inquiry we learn that the cause of all this is a seven pound daughter who arrived at his home January 15th.

Jonathan Tice lost a valuable sow last week. He was driving her across the Campbell bridge when she took a sudden notion to suicide, and in spite of Jonathan's best efforts she jumped into the creek and the icy waters closed over a big chunk of contrary pork.

Lost, about December 1st, 1895, one promissory note given to James Brown by James Vincent and bearing date about October 1st, 1895, running four months, for the sum of $35.00. Finder will be rewarded by leaving same at the office of Wharton & Holden in Yale. 38-1f.

The new buildings for the Yale Woolen Mills of C. Andreas & Sons are presenting quite a substantial appearance. The brick work on the smaller building is about complete, while that of the larger one is under way. A large force of men are pushing the work.

Chamberlain, Putney & Co., having decided to make a change in business, are offering goods at cost in order that they may clear out the stock. These goods have been bought for cash and at right prices and it means a big saving of dollars in buying goods now. Notice their new ad. in another place.

Reward.—$25 Reward will be given to any person or persons who will give information which will lead to the arrest and conviction of party or parties who took part of the fence and large elm tree from the farm belonging to the Gray estate, two miles north and west of this village. 39-3

A Western editor who, no doubt, intends to start in on the new year about right, publishes an item in his sheet which reads: "If any subscriber finds a line in this paper which he does not like and cannot agree with, if he will bring the paper to this office and point out the offending line, the editor will take his scissors and cut it out for him."

A stranger claiming to hail from Tampa, Fla., and to have brought seven carloads of oranges with him, has been circulating among farmers near Capac, offering to buy several thousand bushels of potatoes at 25 cents a bushel. Farmers have flocked to town with the tubers, but the stranger has gone, after receiving much free board and lodging.

S. F. Fritz, of 677 Sedgwick street, Chicago, says: "I had a severe cough which settled on my lungs. I tried a number of advertised remedies and also placed myself under treatment of several physicians, with no benefit. I was recommended to try Foley's Honey and Tar. With little expectation of getting relief, I purchased a bottle. I had taken but few doses when I felt greatly improved; I was enabled to sleep, spitting of blood ceased, and by the time I had taken the second bottle I was entirely well. It saved my life." Grant Holden.

Let those whose voices are idle tude
Fair and soft's praisings sing:
The pleasant days, the chiding nights
Fide inspired bring.
I'd like to chide of falling leaves,
Grieved, yellow, red, and gold,
But I can't sing of anything
With this coldfused cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Lothian are somewhat improved in health this week. Their many friends will be pleased to learn this.

In another column of this issue will be found a notice of the marriage of Laura Grandy and A. C. Lange at Sault Ste Marie.

A young woman who claimed to hail from Port Huron, asked Manistee authorities to help her on her way to Frankfort. While the commissioners were debating whether it were best to comply with the request, or to haul the Port Huron officials over the coals, the matter had been amicably settled. The woman had smiled so fascinatingly on one of Manistee's young 'bleeds', that he volunteered to pay her transportation to the desired point.

BROCKWAY.

Items That May Be of Interest to Our Subscribers in the Old Town.

Peninsula Tent, 186, KOTM, installed their officers Monday night.

John Martin, of Crosswell, has returned to Brockway in poor health.

Mrs. John Buckley, of Emmet, won the quilt raffle by Abbie Fisher.

Mrs. W. H. Harris, of Yale, was in town visiting friends and relatives Saturday.

Some ruffian Saturday night plastered the front of W. J. McKinney's store with taffy.

In answer to our query for a "shure cure" we received several good receipts. We will publish them from week to week.

Last Saturday night our peaceful and quiet town was roused from its slumbers by terrible cries. On investigation it was found that a taffy pull was in operation on Colfax street. Several thought it the rear end of Barnum's museum.

Conversation between mother and son that the scribe has picked up. Scene—Kitchen (all going to dance). Mother—"What will you do A. when the hat is passed to pay the fiddler?" Son—"Haven't you got ten cents?" Mother—"No!" Son—"Never mind now I can either borrow it or skip out the back door." (This is taken from life.)

Brockway has two stores, one hotel, two blacksmith shops, one barber shop, one feed mill, one boot and shoe shop, one physician, three churches with services every Sunday. The above is not a bad showing for a town that has received as many burnings as ours. The purchasing power of one dollar is as good, if not better, here as in any town in St. Clair county west of Port Huron.

We herewith append a church directory for Brockway, there being a great deal of misconception on this point. M. E. Church services every Sunday at 1:30 o'clock. Sunday school at 2:00. Pastor, Rev. P. Desjardins, Yale. Roman Catholic services the 2d and 4th Sunday of each month. Second Sunday, low mass at 9:00 o'clock, a. m. Fourth Sunday, high mass at 10:30, a. m. Meetings of the Altar society immediately after. Pastor, Rev. Fr. Laughran, Emmet. PRESBYTERIAN services every Sunday at 1:30 o'clock, followed by Sunday school. Pastor, Rev. J. Kirkland, Port Huron.

The Ideal Panacea.

James L. Frances, Alderman, Chicago: "I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an Ideal Panacea for Coughs, Colds and Lung Complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physician's prescriptions or other preparations." Rev. John Burgess, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: "I have been a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church for 50 years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery." Try this Ideal Cough Remedy now. Trial bottles free at Grant Holden's drug store.

What J. B. Stevens, of Yale, Says of Pine Root Cough Syrup.

T. F. Holden, Imlay City, Mich.: Dear Sir:—I have used your Pine Root Cough Syrup for myself and family, and I heartily recommend it to all suffering from throat and lung trouble. For sale by Grant Holden.

Yes, 'tis true:
Foley's Honey and Tar
Is the Best Cough Medicine.
Grant Holden.

FARMER'S BEAR.—A Thorough-bred Tamworth Boar for service 12 miles south of Yale. Terms of service, $1.00. Spot cash. 51- Wm. Welch.
